

Welcome to Hopswick Tower!

Here's your special house card:

HOPSWICK TOWER

Founded by the ever-jovial Hellmuth Ferdelbräu Hopswick, this house celebrates laughter, camaraderie, and the sacred power of a well-timed brew. Perched in its own slightly tilted tower (structural damage courtesy of the Great Toast of '66), House Hopswick believes that magic works best when shared — preferably over a hearty laugh and a frothing flagon.

At the start of the battle draw 2 extra cards. This doesn't affect your regular hand limit.

House card — provides a starting bonus once per battle.

Conjure this page in 100% scale on A4 or Letter size paper.

The card should be the size of a standard Not Enough Mana card (63.5x88mm).
